

Edgewater Senior Citizen Interview Program

The Edgewater Cultural & Historic Committee is starting a program interviewing seniors and long time residents to unearth and preserve their memories of the Edgewater of yesterday. The program is called "Remembering When In Edgewater"

After initial interviews, some talks will be recorded and the videos shown at events, on the Historic committee Facebook page, the borough website, at the Library, and at the places where they were recorded.

The committee invites YOU to participate. Some of the subjects we might cover and ask about are Shad fishing on the Hudson, Palisades Amusement Park, Vreeland Cemetery, Edgewater during World War II, the schools and your favorite teachers, what do you remember about Edgewater that is now gone, and any other things you wish to tell us about!

The interviews will be scheduled in small groups of 3 or 4 people and individually. We look forward to hearing from you and hope you will participate in this fun venture. Please give us permission to contact you and return this sheet to
